The Scottish Premiership leaders had been pegged back by a fierce Craig Levein side, who were missing Marius Zaliukas and Daniel Holm, but Beram and Griffiths were on hand to convert two excellent finishes. Lee McCulloch went close twice for Hearts, but in truth Celtic did little to trouble goalkeeper Emilio Izaguirre. Having led twice, they finished the half on top and were imperious in the second half. And Kayal's injury-time shot sealed a comfortable win, with Kris Commons adding a late penalty. Jonny Hayes, who has scored three of Celtic's last four goals, was injured in the build-up to the opener. The home side arrived at Celtic Park having beaten Inverness, Hibernian and Rangers - three games in which Neil Lennon's side had won by two goals to one. They also boasted an excellent record at the east end of Glasgow, winning three and drawing three of their previous five visits. a1d647c40b
